Mindy N. Besaw was appointed curator of Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art in 2014, where she oversees the collection from colonial times to 1945. Projects related to the permanent collection, temporary exhibitions, research and writing, and management of Tyson Scholars of American Art and curatorial interns are part of Besaw's responsibilities. Besaw also spearheaded a renovation and reinstallation of the early American galleries at Crystal Bridges, completed in March 2018.
